THIEVING CONGRESSMAN.

SENATOR BAYARD'S SPEECH---THAT NEW YORK ELECTION.

English Emigrants for Texas—Excitement Among Lottery Men---Other Telegraphic News.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 12.—Hon. C. H. Voorhis, member of Congress from the Fifth District of New Jersey, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of abstracting from the First National Bank of Hackensack, of which he was president, collaterals deposited to secure private loans. Affidavits were made by Cashier Brower and Vice President Degroot, and Voorhis was taken before a United States Commissioner. Up to this morning his bail has not been fixed. He was not locked up, but held under surveillance at his own house.

Bayard's Speech.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 12.—In his speech last night Senator Bayard speaking of the contrasts presented by the governments of the Old World and of this country said: "Experience and reflection with increased opportunities for comparison with other countries and systems of the government bring me only to higher appreciation of the generosity, justice and moral grandeur of the principles upon which our own was founded. A faithful representative he said, should rather dispense with his constituents than consent to that which injures them, and in this connection he asked if whenever he spoke or voted in the Senate for new and stronger ties of the union between the States, or when he opposed false money, he did not echo the voice of Delaware." There was frequent applause during his speech.

English Emigrants for Texas.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The steamer St. Louis leaves Liverpool to-day for New Orleans with 120 passengers nearly all for Texas. There are many farmers among them, some with families and a number of mechanics.

Will Hurrah for Seymour.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Evening Telegram says: Information from all sources goes to show that the Republican State ticket carries the State except for State Engineer. The returns now being canvassed in Albany, seem to add to the majorities of all their candidates. Wendell, for State Treasurer, leads the ticket, excepting, of course, Cornell; as now shown, his majority is 2,215. Notwithstanding these figures, there are those who still cling honestly to a different result than the canvass thus far paints.

Credit Mobilier Shares.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A Paris dispatch says: A settlement between the Barque Europeanne (which has now frankly accepted all of Phillpot's operations) and outside brokers begun yesterday, and the necessary money for the liquidation of his indebtedness having been obtained from the credit of Cejonnoise under the guarantee of the syndicate formed among outside brokers, and in pledge of which some thousands of credit mobilier and tramway shares have been lodged with that institution.

An Abandoned Ship.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Captain Flaherty, of the Red Star line steamer Zeeland, reports November 8th, in lat. 43 3n, long. 6-1, 35 west, picked up the barque Royal Arch, of Sunderland, which had been abandoned by the master and crew. She was loaded with salt and merchandize, and her sails and rigging all in proper shape. She had but two or three feet of water in the hold and the pumps in good working order. The first mate and seven seamen of the Zeeland were put on board with directions to sail for New York.

Meeting of Creditors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the creditors of the Stettours of Chicago last night, the report of exports showed the total assets to be $124,178.68 less, and guaranty on open accounts and contingent liability amounting to $28,000, leaving $974,929.16 applicable to the payment of unsecured creditors, which would be 64 1-10 per cent. A resolution was adopted to entertain no proposition that looks to a compromise at less than 64 cents on the dollar.

Getting Bilious.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Sun says that the official returns from about half of the counties show slight Republican gains over previous estimates, and enough to indicate that the vote for Lieutenant Governor will be very close, and that the Republicans may have carried the remainder of the State ticket, except Engineer and Surveyor.

Sanitary Measures to be Adopted.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 12.—The committee of Memphians appointed at a meeting held in St. Louis last September to devise means for improving the sanitary condition of Memphis, met this afternoon and decided to hold a public meeting next Saturday night to appeal to the Governor to call an extra session of the legislature to authorize the levying of a special tax for sanitary purposes.

Organization of Railroad Commissioners.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—The Railroad Commissioners for Georgia organized to-day with ex-Governor Smith as chairman and R. A. Bacon clerk. The roads will be called on in a few days hence to submit their rates for review and regulation.

Pennsylvania Election Returns.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 12.—The returns from every county in the State give a total vote for State Treasurer as follows: Butler, Republican, 280,153; Barr, Democrat, 223,715; Sutton, Greenback, 27,207; Richardson, Prohibitionist, 330.

Another "Southern Outrage" at Yazoo City.

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Nov. 12.—Charles Mann's cotton seed oil mill was accidentally destroyed by fire to-day. The loss is $45,000. The insurance is only $10,100.

Surgeons at Nashville.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Surgeons Thomas A. McPartin and John S. Billings have been ordered to proceed to Nashville, Tenn., to represent the medical department of the army at a meeting of the American Public Health Association on the 18th.

Col. Buford's Trial.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—A Frankfort special says that the argument in the Buford case commenced yesterday.

A Muss Among the Canvassers.

NEW YORK, November 12.—When the Board of County Canvassers were about to begin canvassing the returns to-day, one of their number objected to counting the vote, on the ground of the probable illegality of the returns, as it did not appear from the returns proposed to be canvassed that the officers voted for were on "scratched" or "regular" tickets—no ballots appearing upon them, as required by law. The ballot he mentioned should be posted, and the return and number of votes cast for that ballot should be written partly on that ballot and continued in the returns, as decided by Judge Davis' charge yesterday, in the case of the indicted election inspectors. The board, he contended, would render itself liable to indictment, if they proceeded to canvass such returns, as they were not in conformity with the election laws. Recess was taken to get the opinion of the corporation counsel in regard to the matter.

Lottery Dealers Excited.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The excitement among the lottery dealers of this city, consequent upon the recent raid made upon them by Anthony Comstock and his officers, was kept alive yesterday by other arrests and the voluntary surrenders of parties implicated. The specific charge made against the lottery dealers is violation of the post office laws in sending prohibited matter through the mail. Yesterday about fifteen others appeared before United States Commissier Shields, among them B. Frank Moore, agent for the Louisiana Lottery Company. The Times says the arrest of Moore, who is the agent of M. A. Dauphin, of New Orleans, is expected to lead to some very startling developments growing out of the suit brought in the United States Circuit Court by Marcus Cicero, against Charles T. Howard and John A. Morriss, who are principals in and in control of the Louisiana Lottery Company. Dauphin states in advertisements in so me of the daily papers that all of the one hundred thousand tickets which are included or issued in each monthly scheme are sold before the drawing takes place. This, if true, indicates that the gross receipts are $200,000 monthly, of which they claim to distribute $110,000 in prizes, leaving $90,000 to pay running expenses, including advertising, rents, salaries, printing and postage. This, in the opinion of men who know a great deal about business, leaves the monthly margin of profit amounting to from $35,000 to $40,000 to be divided among four or five persons and giving each of them an income of about $100,000 a year. It is said seven-eights of the tickets are now sold in this city, and states as a consequence that about $175,000 a month is paid by New Yorkers for the pleasure, profit or privilege of indulging in this little game of Louisianans. The company is said to have been driven to seek new markets for their tickets in the east because they had about exhausted the pecuniary resources of the people of Louisiana.

That Collision Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—A court of inquiry to investigate the circumstances of the recent collision between the steamer Champion and the British ship Lady Octavia, off Delaware Capes, convened this afternoon at the Commercial Exchange. There will be two investigations of this disaster: One under the jurisdiction of acting consul Crump, and one under the jurisdiction of the United States local inspectors. The first named is the one now in progress. Acting consul Crump stated that the purpose of the present investigation is to ascertain what was the conduct of the officers and crew of the ship Lady Octavia just previous to and during the collision with the Champion. The log book and other papers of the first named ship were put in evidence, together with the report of Captain Johnson to the British Government, in which, under the head of remarks as to casualties, he gave as the cause of the collision, negligence of the steamship Champion in having no lookout. Captain Johnson, upon his efforts to save life, after rescuing all he could see, sent a man aloft with night-glasses, and remained in the vicinity until day light. On further examination he said he learned from the chief engineer of the Champion that there was no lookout. The second mate and chief engineer of the steamer both told him it was customary to take the man off of the lookout for other work, and that there were only three men on watch. There were only six seamen and two boys besides the officers on the steamer.

The hearing to-day will be closed with the statement of Captain Johnson, and will be resumed to-morrow, when the board will call the chief officer, whose testimony will be more in detail, as he was on deck before, at the time of, and after the collision.

New York and the Election.

Report of a Hurricane

Lost and split sails and carried away foremain and mizen top masts. J. Larsen Adams and Oben, of Sweeden seamen were lost overboard. The Ocean was bound to Philadelphia and was towed to this port by St. Tercer Berreras, (Spanish) which left new York on the 10th instant for Viga.

Gone Into the Shoe Business.

QUEBEC, Nov. 12.—J. G. Ross has received a contract from Paris for a million pair of shoes to be made by Forten, Continent & Co. A new factory, to employ 800 hands is to be built at St. Sauveur.

King Cotton.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 12.—The Manchester Guardian this morning says: The hardening tendency of the cotton market especially for futures to-day, exercised a strong influece upon the manufacturers. The quotations were mostly higher and buyers found the market much more difficult to deal in than on Friday.

Edward Lawson's resignation from the Beef Steak club has been accepted, and a meeting of the club has been called for Friday next to act on the question of expelling Labouchere.

CANVASSING RETURNS.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN HAVE BEGUN WORK.

Contests in Several Cases-Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Districts, and Seventh and Eighth Senatorial Districts.

New York Star, 11th.

The Aldermen will meet as a Board of County Canvassers to-day at 12:30 p. m., to count the votes cast in this city last Tuesday. They are required by law to finish their arduous labors within ten days. Alderman Sauer will be chosen Chairman, and a committee on contested elections will be appointed; also one on corrected returns. It will take the official declaration to decide who are elected minority Aldermen in the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Senatorial Aldermanic Districts. Alderman John Cavanaugh (Tammany) claims that he is re-elected in the Fifth District by a small majority. His colleague on the ticket, Bernard Goodwin, will protest against Cavanaugh being awarded the seat.—Alderman George Hall of the Sixth District alleges that corrected returns will prove that he has been re-elected as a minority candidate instead of Alderman Joseph P. Strack. In the Eighth District the election of Matthew J. Coggey (Anti-Tammany) is now doubted, and Alderman Carroll thinks that the true vote will show that he (Carroll) has been re-elected.

The Alderman ticket at large is still at "sixes and sevens." Tammany men adhere to their belief that three of their nominees have been elected.

There promises to be a lively fight over the canvass of the votes cast for Senator in the Seventh and Eighth Districts. Thomas J. Creamer claims that the returns on election night elected him in the Seventh District, instead of Ferdinand Eidmann. It is a notorious fact that on the day after election the sucess of John W. Browing, the Tammany nominee in the Eighth District, was conceded by even the Republicans. Two days afterward, Strahan, the Republican candidate, discovered an alleged error in the returns from one Election District, which elected him instead of Browning.

The Aldermen will meet as City Fathers, half an hour before organized as a Board of County Canvassers. Mayor Cooper will nominate two Police Justices in place of George E. Kasmire, deceased, and Henry Murray, whose term has expired. It is not likely that any of the Mayor's nominees will be confirmed. Among those who are anxious to take the place of Justice Kasmire are Lawyer Kintzing, George W. Blunt, a nephew of the late Pilot Commissioner: ex-Alderman S. V. R. Cooper, ex Alderman George B. Deane, Jr., and Assistant District-Attorney Herring. Judge Murray is named as his own successor. There are, however, two dozen anti-Tammany lawyers who wish to be nominated instead of Judge Murray.

Bayard Will Have to Read Up.

Philadelphia Times.

Senator Bayard arrived in New York yesterday without the preliminary flourish of trumpets and the accompanying oratorical exhibition which were the features of Senator Conkling's return from a shorter sojourn abroad, but the whole country is glad to see him back nevertheless. A good deal has happened since he went away, and he will have to read the papers pretty closely for a day or two in order to get abreast of the times. We have had an election in Ohio which killed the Ohio idea, and Senator Bayard's friend, Senator Thurman, was one of the chief mourners at the funeral. There has been, also, an election in New York, and although, as the country papers say, the smoke of battle has not fairly cleared away, peopie are beginning to recognize such eminent generals as Tilden and Kelly among the killed and wounded, while others whose plumes were nodding gaily last summer are counted missing. And General Grant has got back; and Sherman has declined to go to the Senate; and the administration has done campaign duty nobly in the two or three States; and Blaine has Maine back in his pocket again; and Pennsylvania has been surrendered to the Republicans without a battle; and pretty much everybody now agrees with the Senator from Delaware that it was a mistake to have an extra session of Congress on a forced political issue, and that it was just as well that the silver bill was not allowed to get out of the finance committee of the Senate. All of these things and more Mr. Bayard will hear in due time; but although he may drop some tears for the dead and administer consolation to the dying of his own political family, we trust that he may be able to face the situation with Christian resignation. Welcome to the Senator from Delaware!

Senator Edmunds Interviewed.

Washington Post.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, who arrived from Europe on the Gallia yesterday, and who is stopping at the Fifth Avenue hotel, said, when questioned concerning the result of the elections in the several States, and especially in New York:

"It's no more than I expected. I regard the issue as eminently satisfactory. It secures the election of any good Republican candidate for the Presidency next year."

"How about Gen. Grant?" was asked.

"General Grant is a very strong man," replied the Senator, deliberately, and with deep meaning.

"Very strong man. He has always been a very strong man. He is a man of very great modesty, but he is a man of grip—of very great grip. He would be a strong candidate, but I consider that any good Republican who should be chosen as a candidate would be elected—whether Grant, Secretary Sherman, Washburne, Blaine or Conkling; any one of these who should be nominated by the Republicans for the Presidency would be surely elected.

"You know," he said, "we vote for Republicans and not men. Success is assured; that is my view of the elections, only of course, there must be work. Every man who expects to get a living must not be lazy, and so of great political parties; those who would win must not relax their efforts."

The Senator will leave for his Vermont home to-morrow.

An Indignity to General Grant.

During the passage of General Grant and party through Galesburg, Illinois, the other day, the General was called out on the platform of his car and just as he began to speak three eggs were thrown at him by some vile sneaks in the crowd. One of the eggs hit the General on the back of the head, the other two struck persons in the crowd. The mayor of Galesburg, who was in the car, at once came out and on the part of the city offered $500 reward for the apprehension of the throwers. General Grant was very indignant at the outrage, but said that he did not blame Galesburg or its people, and that it simply was evidence that ill-bred ruffians live in every community. The crowd were greatly infuriated and tried to find the wretches, but without success.

MRS. GRANT DENIES A RUMOR.

No Truth in Olive Logan's Story of Trouble Between Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris.

GALENA, Ill., Nov. 10.—Gen. Grant and his family have settled down into the quiet life of their old home and are spending their time quietly, receiving calls from neighbors and answering letters, of which an immense number have accumulated. Mrs. Grant expresses deep regret at the report alleged to have been circulated by Olive Logan, that owing to incompatibility her daughter Nellie and Mr. Sartoris did not live happily together. Nothing, she says, could be farther from the truth. Mrs. Grant denied the report that Mrs. Sartoris had sailed for America. She has no intimation of an early visit from her daughtar, who is at present at the Sartoris residence in London, and will spend the winter with her husband in Italy, as they always have done since their marriage.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—Members of the Army of the Tennessee and the Arsenal band leave to-morrow evening for Chicago to attend the reception of General Grant on Wednesday.

Wake Forest College.

Special Correspondence of the NEWS.

The prospects of the College are very hopeful. There have been this term 138 matriculates, forty-eight more than were in attendance last fall term, more than the Institution has ever had since it was chartered as a College. Dr. Pritchard has just closed a canvass running through thirty counties, and embracing fourteen associations and conventions, he has worked with energy and industry, and a considerable increase in the number of students is confidently expected in the spring term, which opens on the 15th of January. The catalogue for this year will probably contain one hundred and sixty names—forty-three from Wake.

The total cost per session, of ten months, per student, including everything, is two hundred dollars.

The Library Hall fitted up in modern style is about ready for the reception of the handsome society libraries, containing ten thousand volumes, and is the handsomest room of the kind in the State.

The Wingate Memorial Building is progressing rapidly and will be a very handsome addition to the College edifice. It is built of brick, two stories, 60x130 feet—the second story being unusually high-pitched; the lower story will contain four large recitation rooms and a chapel for ordinary use, which will seat three hundred and fifty persons; the second story will be the chapel proper, to be used on special occasions. The chapel will be 60x90 feet, twenty-four feet pitch, without gallery or pillar of any sort, and will seat thirteen hundred persons. Mr. Jacob S. Allen, of your city, is the contractor and builder.

The faculty of the College consists of seven gentlemen, all of them except one, are graduates of the Institution.

Improvements and evidences of thrift all over the village show the prosperity of the inhabitants, and the very great demand for private residences. Three handsome dwellings are nearly completed, and within the last twelve months, have been built a steam tannery and cotton gin, a wheel-wright establishment, and the well-known firm of have removed their foundry from Forestville to Wake Forest, and constructed new buildings, with the most improved, modern machinery, greatly increasing their facilities for turning out first-class work from justly celebrated manufacturers of plows and plow castings. Heretofore the demand on the foundry was too great for the supply, but with the recent improvements, the firm is prepared to fill promptly all orders sent them.

The firm is composed of W. B. Dunn, who has been engaged in the manufacture of plows for twelve years, he is one of the leading citizens of Wake, a christian gentleman of the strictest integrity, possessing fine business qualifications, who devotes his attention to the office work, finances and sales of the concern. Mr. S. S. Abernathy has been a member of the firm for three years, is a gentleman of integrity, an expert mechanic and gives his attention to the mechanical department of the business.

F. M. Purefoy one of the leading merchants of the village, a gentleman of culture and fine business qualifications, has recently become a member of the firm, and proposes to give it the benefit of his large experience.

This happy combination of varied talent, gives a warrant for the continued success of this home institution and is worthy of the patronage of the farmers of the State. R.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, Nov. 11.—The weather still continues warm and dry. The roads are as dusty as in mid-summer and the creeks and branches are without water.

The turpentine boom which promised so much for us has bursted, but it is again looking up. Cotton is still holding its own.

Died in Upper Little River township very suddenly on the night of the 7th instant, Mrs. Eliza S. wife of Hugh McLean. In Jonesboro township, Moore county, on the night of the 7th inst. Mrs Harrietta, wife of Griffin Thomas of paralysis.

Mr. William Underwood got the end of his finger split by a cotton gin saw.

Mr. Daniel Clark, of Jonesboro township, has had two of his fingers cut off and his hand badly lacerated in his cotton gin. This makes four casualties of this kind I have had to report this year. When will people learn that a gin saw will cut flesh and bones when brought in contact with it.

Mt. Pisgah church had a very interesting Sabbath school nearly all summer; but owing to the lukewarmness of the elders, and inattention of the superintendent and teachers it was suffered to die, to our shame be it said.

The young people of the neighborhood are having a series of singing lessons at the different houses one night in each week and delightful music they make too; but ah, the going home with the girls after the singing is over.

A goodly number of persons from this county and Moore are absent at the Cumberland Fair. This, the first day, is all that could be wished for pleasure. J. H.

The Gentleman from Canonchet.

Senator Conkling arrived in town yesterday afternoon and took quarters at Wormley's. In reply to a question from the Post he said that his health was improving, but he was still infirm. He declined to be interviewed on the political question in New York.

FRAUDS IN THE ELECTION.

SPECIFIC CASES POINTED OUT BY ANTI-TAMMANY MEN.

They Aver That There is a Plot to Count in Tammany Aldermen—More Votes Cast Than Registered.

New York Sun.

The committee appointed by the regular Democracy to make the arrangements necessary to insure a fair canvass of the vote received by their candidates met yesterday afternoon in the office of Charles H. Truax, 99 Nassau street. Many evidences of fraud and irregularities practised by the inspectors of election in counting the vote were presented by members of the various Assembly district organizations. The return from the Tenth Election District of the First Assembly District gives James Flynn, one of the regular Democratic nominees for Marine Court Justice, one vote. The committee have received from fifteen voters in that district affidavits that they voted for Mr. Flynn.

Affidavits were received in which it alleged that sixty votes were stolen from the regular Democratic county ticket in the Eighth Election District of the Second Assembly District; and that in the Twelfth Election District of the Eighth Assembly District men voted on names other than their own, and the vote polled exceeded the number of votes registered by sixty-seven. On the return from the Twenty-second Election District of the Second Assembly District Miles Beach, regular Democratic candidate for Judge of Common Pleas, is credited with one vote. Affidavits of voters show that Mr. Beach's vote in that district was much larger. Other reports to the Committee say that in many election districts the Chairman of the Inspectors did not read all the names on the State ticket ticket when canvassing the vote, but often read, "One for Cornell and the Republican State ticket. It is claimed that by this irregularity the Democratic nominees for State officers were robbed of many votes. On some of the returns the aggregate vote of the two candidates for any office is larger than the whole vote polled for that office. It is committee's intention to bring these facts before the Aldermen after they have organized as county canvassers.

A caucus of Tammany Republican Aldermen yesterday gave rise to a rumor that unfair work was to be done by a majority of the Board of Aldermen during the canvass of the vote. The rumor spread rapidly and before evening was credited by many politicians. The anti-Tammany men openly said that an attempt would be made to count in one and perhaps two of Tammany's defeated candidates for Aldermen-at-Large, and two defeated Tammany nominees for District Aldermen. "We are satisfied that the returns, if they have not been tampered with," said an Irving Hall Democrat, "will show that three of our Aldermen at-Large and five of our District Aldermen are elected. And yet we have reason to belive that the Tammany-Republican combination in the Board of Alderman will try to elect George Hall and Thomas Carroll, Tammany candidates for District Alderman who were defeated, and that an attempt may be made to count in James Selvin, a Tammany candidate for Alderman-at-Large, and Francis Snyder, a Republican nominee, although both of these gentleman ran behind Bennett W Ellison and Charles H. Marshall, anti-Tammany candidates. The way in which this work will be done is this," the gentleman continued. "The county canvass is made from the returns filed with the clerk of the Aldermen and those filed in the County Clerk's office. When the two returns from any election districts differ, the Aldermen, by a majority vote of those in attendance at the time, may decide by which return the vote shall be made.

As it is certain that the Tammany and Republican aldermen will vote together during the canvass, wherever the returns do not agree, they will, of course, canvass the vote by that return which favors their candidates. Not many votes will be changed in this way. The alterations will be made on the returns which have to be corrected. In every canvass there are many returns which are manifestly incorrect. Heretofore the practice has been to examine the inspectors who made the return, and to correct them in accordance with their explanations. The large number of "scratched" ballots voted at the recent election, and the inexperience of many of the inspectors, will undoubtedly make it necessary for the aldermen to send for an unusually large number of inspectors to correct returns. The irregular returns are referred to a committee, who, before the close of the canvass, examine the inspectors. The committee do not usually report the returns as correct until the last day of the canvass. Now, as two inspectors in every election district are Tammany Democrats, and one a Republican, there is good reason to believe that all the corrections will be made against the anti-Tammany candidates. There is little doubt that changes enough, fair and unfair, may be made in the votes in this way to elect Tammany aldermen who were defended at the polls."

The Tammany and the Republican Aldermen of course say that they have no intention to do anything unfair in the canvass of the vote, but they are determined to give their candidates every vote to which they are honestly entitled. They declare that the charges that they will attempt to count in anybody are absurd, and that they are made by the anti-Tammany leaders to impress upon their followers the belief that their defeated candidates were elected and then counted out. A conference was held in the big wigwam last evening between John Kelly and the Tammany Aldermen. The Aldermen said, after it had ended, that the canvass of the city vote was not the subject of discussion. It is generally believed, however, that they were instructed to see that every Tammany candidate was given every vote that he polled. The change in the action of some of the Tammany candidates since Saturday gives color to the rumor that the canvass may be made to change the political complexion of next year's Board of Aldermen. Several candidates who were believed to have been defeated at the polls are now confident of their election.

George Hall admitted last week that he had been beaten, but on Sunday he averred that he had been elected over Joseph P. Strack, an anti-Tammany nominee, and showed figures which make his assertion good. The returns in the Police Central Office showed that Thomas Carroll, a Tammany candidate, ran behind every one of his five competitors. On Sunday Mr. Carroll and Matthew Stewart, a defeated Republican candidate for Alderman, met in an up-town barroom. Each explained to the other why he was defeated and mutual condelences were exchanged. Yesterday Mr. Carroll proclaimed in the office of Jacob M. Patterson, Jr., and in several down-town barrooms that he had been elected. The anti-Tammany leaders say that any New York politician would say that this sudden change of opinion on the part of these two candidates was the result of a discovery of gross errors in the inspectors' returns (which they have not seen), or of a belief that such errors will be ascertained when the returns are opened and canvassed.

The canvass of the city vote is to begin to-day. The Aldermen will be sworn in as canvassers by the County Clerk, and will then organize. One of the Aldermen will be Chairman, and County Clerk Thompson will be ex-officio Clerk of the Board. The reading of the returns will probably not begin until to-morrow. The canvass must be completed within ten days after it is begun.

DOUBLED HIS WIVES.

A Polygamous Husband Sued by an Irate Wife.

Philadelphia Record.

After an imprisonment of four months for beating his wife, George Washington Dunckley yesterday emerged from the county prison, and had swallowed no more than three gulps of pure atmosphere when he was seized and dragged to a station house. It appears that since he has been whiling away the summer in a cell Mrs. Dunckley has been busy looooking into his past life and discovered that beside herself there was another who claimed to be his wife. When George Washington was subsequently arraigned before Magistrate Smith his wife testified that her maiden name was Margaret McClintock, and that she was married to Dunckley in July 1874, and was now the mother of three children. Mrs. Dunckly No. 2, who was formerly Miss Clara Fletcher, of 627 Wall street, swore that her marriage with the acused took place at the old Swedes church in 1868, his name being given as George Mead, and that she had one child by the captivating prisoner. For these performances he was placed under bail to await trial.

To the Survivors of the Branch-Lane N. C. Brigade:

COMRADES:—At an informal meeting to-day composed of representatives from the 7th, 18th and 33d regiments N. C. State troops, it was determined that a call in this manner should be made upon each of you to express by letter to the undersigned your preference for the time and place of our proposed reunion.

We suggest Wednesday the 17th of December prox. as the time, and the capital of the State as the place, but will be governed by the wishes of those who will attend.

This call has nothing whatever to do with the politics of the past, present, or future. We meet as American patriots and soldiers. Let politicians settle among themselves the abstract question whether we were rebels or not. Your conduct upon the field secured to you the rights of belligerents. The respect gained then has only been increased in every generous soul by your law-abiding course in honorably observing your paroles, and the condition of your capitulation.

Sectional animosity must give place to justice, magnanimity and patriotism. While we say,

"Alas, that Scottish maiden e'er should sing
Of Scots by Scotchmen slain,"

the unbiased chronicler of the military fame of the American States will yet call for the unpublished record of North Carolina. As comrades of Lee and Jackson you have imitated and surpassed the prowess of your ancestors, who followed Washington and Greene. Do not imitate them also in omitting to leave to posterity a fuller report of the parts taken by you in the great drama.

A marble shaft to General Abner Nash at Germantown tells how well his North Carolinians fought to establish American liberty. A true history of your brigade will show that none from any State, North or South, excelled it in sacrifices and bravery to make good its interpretation of a disputed question arising under the Constitution, which the founders of our general government had committed to us to preserve that liberty. Many of those having a personal knowledge of that recent history have, with our gallant L. O. B. Branch, "passed over the river" to join the great Stonewall, from whom he repeatedly won such handsome compliments.

"Their silent tents are spread
On fame's eternal camping ground,"

With their glory they have bequeathed to you a duty as yet undischarged. The deeds of the old brigade from Newbern to Appomattox Courthouse, for none of which there is cause to blush, are accredited to Confederate troops. Your duty to your State, whose call you so cheerfully obeyed, demands that some steps be taken to enable the future historian to say with more precision what position you occupied. This may be done without any invidious distinction against any sister State, where all did so well.

Such will be the items of business to be discussed and disposed of. At the same time it is hoped that it will be an occasion of great social pleasure to all in attendance.

Let us hear from you promptly in the way indicated above.

A Mistake of a Million.

Mayor Cooper, of New York, has called the attention of the Comptroller to an error of nearly $1,000,000 in his budget for 1879, which he said had been there ever since the estimate was made up, a year ago. He says that in the estimate for 1879 $2,500,000 was put down as accruing to the general fund from the sinking fund, while this year only $1,500,000 appears under the sama head. The Comptroller's clerks say that the bonded indebtedness bill accounts for the difference, but the Mayor says that this bill took effect in June, 1878, long before last year's estimate was made up, and that the mistake has been carried through all this years business.

A Fiery Visitor.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

This morning at half past 4 o'clock a large and brilliant meteor was observed by our citizens to pass over the town. It was about the size of a water bucket, with a tail seven or eight feet in length, of a fiery-red color. A tremendous explosion was heard immediately after its passing, and a concussion of the earth was felt which was quite equal to a small earthquake. It is supposed that the meteor struck in six or eight miles of this place.

Got Out Doors.

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

THE END OF THE WORLD.

TO-MORROW NIGHT FIXED FOR THE SOUNDING OF GABRIEL'S TRUMPET.

Adventists of New York Discussing the Matter at a Meeting in Cooper Union—a Prophet, Interviewed.

New York Star.

The Adventists have set the day for the end of the world so often that their startling prophesies are generally received with some hesitation. Yesterday, however, considerable excitement was caused by the report that at the Sunday meeting of Adventist in room No. 24. Cooper Union, a brother had settled upon Friday next as the day when "The Lord would come in His glory to sweep away the wicked in their iniquity and set up the Kingdom of Heaven."

A reporter of the Star, anxious to allay the popular excitement, sought out Mr. Mark E. Green, a leading Adventist, in order to obtain some reliable information, as to the facts of the case. Mr. Green lives at No. 236 Sullivan street. He is a clerical looking man, seventy-two years of age, with a tolerably well developed head, a serious face, hair slightly tinged with gray, small eyes and a prominent nose. The reporter was ushered into a large, pleasantly furnished room. He took a seat opposite the prophet, who reclined on a sofa at his case, and began: "Mr. Green, the Adventist declaration that the end of the world is to come on Friday next is a startling one. What grounds are there for such a statement?"

"I'll tell you how it originated," was the reply. "Mr. Ricketson, one of the members of our church, had a dream that the world would come to an end on the 14th of November, and he said so at the meeting on Sunday. Then another member said he hoped that the Lord would come on Wednesday or Thursday, and that the signs of the times pointed to the belief that He would come immediately."

"What preparation have you made in anticipation of the Lord's speedy coming—I mean in regard to your ascension robes?"

"Now, that's all humbug. I'll give $500 to any one who can find an instance where a body of Adventists have ever got ready to meet their Lord in such a way. No, sir. We go about our business just as usual, and never think of making any special preparations. I'd as soon the Lord would find me at my business as in the church."

"Will you give me your idea of the Second coming. Suppose, for example, the Lord was to make his second appearing to-night, how would it work?"

Mr. Green looked solemn, and said: "I believe that the heavens will depart as a scroll—be rolled up in fact. I mean the heavens visible to us. That every mountain and island will be moved out of their place; that the mental and moral condition of things will be changed, and a sudden restoration of Adamic purity will be inaugurated.

"How about the people?"

"Well, those who are to be saved will be saved, and the wicked will be burned up as ashes under the soles of the feet. God's children will be caught up in the air, because you see this earth will be on fire. The Lord and his saints will then descend and establish a new kingdom."

"What bodies will the saints have?"

"The same bodies they had before, only they will have no blood; they will have spiritual bodies; blood belongs to the natural life. When Christ died he died, there was no mistake about it. He was raised with the same body, He appeared to His disciples in the same body, and fifty days after he ascended to heaven with the same body, and this same Jesus shall again appear on earth in like manner and with the same body. I hope Christ may come at any moment."

Assured on this point, the reporter asked Mr. Green to give some account of himself. Mr. Green said: "I learned the coachmaking business and formerly lived at Hoboken. I was born in New Jersey. The firm of M. P. & M. E. Green, the latter partner being myself, built the first railroad car ever used by the Camden and Amboy Line. It was put on the road the 10th of October, 1832. Mr. Robert Steveus went to Europe and brought us the plans of a railroad car, and we built it. We built the first double deckers ever put on the Fourth Avenue Line, also cars for the Boston and Lowell and Long Island roads. I became a Millerite in 1842, through reading Miller's book on the prophesis. I was then an infidel. Since 1842 I have been a firm believer in Miller's doctrine of the second coming of Christ, with perhaps a few exceptions as to his interpretations of the prophesies. The first date fixed by the Adventists for the Lord's coming was the year 1842, the fall of 1844 being the limit. The time passed, and from certain facts an extension was made, and the coming was fixed for 1847."

"How is it you don't get tired of fixing dates, Mr. Green?"

"Well, you see, we are constantly finding new facts, or giving old ones different readings. Between the best historians there is a difference of at least thirteen years as to the birth and crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Oh, yes, all Adventists believe in the second coming, although there is considerable divergence of belief among them as to the final destruction of the wicked, or the question of eternal life.

In further conversation the reporter learned that the Adventists were spread troughout the State, but not in large numbers. A society meets every Sunday at No. 138 East Twenty-fourth street, one at Cooper Union and another in Brooklyn. The Adventists do not form regular churches, though they have elders, and they profess to embrace as brothers and sisters all who love the Lord and look for his second appearing. They have two journals, the Bible Banner and the Herald of Life, advocating the fundamental doctrine, but opposed on the question of the destruction of the wicked. Mr. Green is one of the editors of the Herald. He represents the party who do not believe in man having an immortal soul. "When a man's dead he's dead," say they; "and unless the Lord comes a second time he will not live again. The doctrine of the immortality of the soul is a product of paganism."

An interesting item of information was obtained. After 1847 passed away without any disturbance, 1854 was mentioned; next came the assurance that 1866 was the date, then 1868. All these dates failing, the world's bonfire was fixed for the year 1873. Since the latter date no further declaration as to the time of the final blaze has been made until the prediction fixing Friday next as the date.

When a man of family finds himself attacked by a violent cold, it is his duty to relieve the anxiety of his wife and children and seek a remedy immediately. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup costs only 25 cents a bottle and a few doses give instant relief.

DAILY NEWS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THE New York World thus speaks of Mr. Bayard's sociability: "An esteemed western contemporary observes that Senator Bayard possesses 'the dignified, somewhat cold-blooded manners which New Yorkers admire.' Our esteemed contemporary means, we infer, to intimate that Senator Bayard has not the elements of popularity ascribed to a lamented Western Republican statesman by a casual but enthusiastic acquaintance, who admiringly observed of him: 'Sociablest feller y' ever see. Jes' put his feet on my lap and expectorated,' as them Eastern fellers say, over my head, and talked free and square."

THE Philadelphia Times has this to say about Tilden and the Southern press:

"The desertion of the Tilden ship by Southern newspapers and politicians, which was foreshadowed early in the present year and began in good earnest after the Ohio election, is now going on at such a rate that it looks as though there would be nobody in that section to advocate his claims when the time for the National Democratic Convention draws near. The truth is that Tilden personally never had any real hold upon the South. The support given him by the Southern delegates with such unanimity at St. Louis in 1876 was the result of the prevalent impression, the result of studious work on the part of his canvassers that he was the only man who could carry New York. This was backed by a very judicious distribution of promises of patronage, but we do believe that much money was expended in his behalf except in the payment of the expenses of these canvassers. The The South was looking for an available man, and in the belief that he was that man, sacrificed Bayard, Hancock, Thurman and Hendricks—either of whom would have been supported with more enthusiasm in that section—to take up Tilden. The same considerations—the absolute necessity of carrying New York and Indiana—are now influential in sending Tilden and Thurman to the rear. Nearly all of the representative Democratic papers in the South which supported Tilden in 1876 now take an anti-Tilden view of the situation, and judging from the tone of these journals we can easily credit the assertion of Mr. Stephens, that in a representative State like Georgia, which was solid for Tilden at St. Louis, it is hard to find anybody now who looks upon his candidacy with favor. This change in public opinion is remarkable, but the explanation is given in the single word—availability.

SENATOR BAYARD'S speech at the reception given to him by his fellow citizens of Wilmington was like the man, "quiet and sincere." Strong language was not needed, he said, yet the mild and cordial words of his address were stronger than any amount of froth or fustian. The Senator said that he had acquired a far better appreciation of the intrinsic value of our institutions through his sojourn in Europe than he had ever hitherto had. Never before had he so well understood as now "the equality of opportunity" offered to every man on our soil, and he urged his hearers, in earnest and fervid words, not to cast away lightly or imperil in the least degree those qualities of "generosity, justice and moral grandeur" upon which our government is essentially founded. A government of this sort, the Senator was aware, could only be maintained through the virtues of the citizens composing it. Public opinion, which regulates public affairs, must be kept continually purged and cleansed. The Senator was content to believe that in every case in which he had opposed schemes of financial unwisdom, or pleaded for "an indissoluble union of indestructible States," he had spoken the voice of Delaware; but, even if that had not been so, he would have done his duty, regardless of the consequences personal to himself. Mr. Bayard confessed, with a very winning and attractive frankness, that it had been his ambition "to possess the unsuspecting confidence of the people of Delaware, and to retain it." He wished also to make our government strong, and the best way to do that, he was assured, was to make it "wise, honest and just," loved equally in all sections, and consequently respected and esteemed abroad. Mr. Bayard congratulated his fellow-citizens upon the general evidences of the return of prosperity, but he dwelt most largely, fondly and lovingly upon the evidences abundantly afforded him that his fellow-citizens of his native town were glad to see him home again and had confidence in him.

THE PIVOT STATE.

THE Republicans are claiming a great victory in New York, but the following is what a Republican correspondent of the Washington Republican has to say on the situation: I cannot see that the Republicans have anything to boast of in the result. In all the certain States that party has triumphed, but in the critical States, by which I mean those whose vote is indispensable to the successful party in 1880, they have not had a success so marked as to relieve all doubt, even in their own minds, of the result at the next Presidential election. The Conkling managers are claiming a great victory in the election of Cornell as Governor, but they are entitled to no credit. Cornell's success was due solely to the fact that the Democrats had two candidates in the field, and the latest figures, which are undoubtedly correct, show that Cornell fell short of an actual majority of the votes cast for Governor over 30,000, which means that the Democrats had that many more votes than he had and that if they had been cast for one man Cornell, like the part of the ticket, would have been beaten badly. So Conkling has not won such a surprising victory after all. True, he made the administration eat a good deal of crow by compelling two Cabinet officers to go into the State and recommend a man for Governor whom they had turned out of a minor office for incapacity. So the victory in New York was not a famous one, and the State may as well be put down as the pivot upon which the Presidential election will turn. The party which carries that State may, with reasonable certainty, count on electing its President in 1880.

THE DEMOCRACY'S CANDIDATE.

We, several days since, announced our opinion of what we conceived to be the best and most available ticket the Democracy could set up to win the contest for the Presidency in 1880. When we suggested the names of Bayard and Palmer it was not intended to appear that that ticket was the only one we could elect, by no means—for the next Democratic candidate, be he who he may, must and will be triumphantly elected; and this is why we should be very careful in our selection. All concede Mr. Bayard to be a pure, conservative man; no one can bring anything against him in connection with his political life, and he can carry the State of New York.

One of our most valued exchanges, the Washington Post, is heartily calling on Governor Seymour to come to the front once more and accept the nomination for President at the hands of the Democracy. We would heartily support Governor Seymour should he become the nominee. We all know he could be elected should he receive and accept the nomination, but will or can Mr. Seymour accept? His physicians forbid it; he himself has repeatedly declared that he would not; then why this Seymour "boom" from the Post? If the Post has any reliable information or reasonable cause for believing that if, as it says, he can be made to believe that the success of the Democracy depends upon the nomination and acceptance by Mr. Seymour as our candidate, then give us the benefit of it. Otherwise we fail to see the use of advocating a thing never to be realized, or trying to perform an impossibility.

A Talk with Ex-Governor Seymour.

A Utica correspondent of the Chicago Times, in an informal talk, has got at ex-Governor Horatio Seymour's views on the New York election. Mr. Seymour said that the result in that State would both help and hurt John Kelly. Kelly could assert that his influence had been sufficient to crush Robinson, but while this fact had to be admitted, it was probable that in the future he could reap no advantage from his triumph, if he desired to do so. The ex-Governor seemed to submit to the suggestion that the defeat of Robinson carried with it the defeat of Mr. Tilden. He thought it unfortunate that the Democratic party had put no speakers in the field in the recent canvass who could successfully combat the theories of President Hayes, Secretary Sherman and others regarding the true situation of the people of the North and of the South on national questions. He believed new men would be brought out as candidates on both sides in the Presidential canvass next year,

The Chicago Grant Reception.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The preparations for General Grant's reception, although on a less magnificent scale than was originally intended, are going actively forward. Buildings are being lavishly decorated and the windows along the line of march are already pre-empted. Large excursions from the country are arranged over every line of railroad centering here. The board of trade to-day voted to hold no session on Wednesday, and that day will virtually be a holiday in many business places.

Rayard's Boom.

New York Mail.

The Southern leaders are rapidly deserting Tilden. Nearly all the really representative Southern papers, excepting the Louisville Courier-Journal, which supported Tilden in 1876, are leaving him now. In South Carolina Hampton and Butler are working for Bayard delegations to the National Convention. In Maryland Senators Whyte and Groome have announced themselves for Bayard. In Georgia, Gordon and Hill are working in Bayard's interest. In Mississippi, Senator Lamar is doing all he can. Ransom and Vance, of North Carolina; Jones, of Florida; Withers, of Virginia; Harris and Bailey, of Tennessee, and Maxey, of Texas, have also declared for Bayard.

Bayard and Potter.

N. Y. Star.

The nomination of Thomas F. Bayard and Clarkson N. Potter for President and Vice-President is one which would insure beyond doubt the restoration of Democratic supremacy in the Federal Government.

Mr. Bayard's statesmanship, his pure record and sound position on the finances, fit him in an eminent degree for the Presidential nomination, and Mr. Potter would harmonize and unify the Democratic vote of New York upon which the result will turn. Let us have Bayard and Potter and the contest is decided.

Ex-Governor Seymour.

The Washington Post editorially takes the ground that the Democrats must have a man for their candidate for President "who would compel the allegiance of every Democrat in the land, and would assemble together in his support every element and faction of the party." "Such a man alone," continues the Post, "is Horatio Seymour. The National Democratic Convention of next year should nominate Governor Seymour for President by acclamation. We do not think he would for a moment dream of refusing such a call from his party."

Grant and the Presidency.

The Hon. John C. New, who was United States Treasurer under General Grant, has returned to Indianapolis from a three weeks' trip to California. He says he talked very freely with the General about the Presidency, and was convinced from the conversation that he had no desire whatever to be nominated, and that if he became a candidate it would be simply because he was forced into it by the desire and demands of his friends.

Tammany's Nose Off.

Washington Post.

Tammany is supposed to be chewing the bitter end of discontent, but it is really occupied in sullenly masticating its nose, which it bit off last Tuesday, to settle a dispute with its countenance.

Conkling's Remarkable Luck.

Philadelphia Record.

Senator Conkling's luck is marvellous. He got away from Canonchet with an unperforated body; and now he gets away with the administration hide-whole and hearty. He bears about with him a charmed cheek, before which opposition melts.

Pennsylvania and Mr. Tilden.

Philadelphia Times.

The Lancaster Intelligencer remembers that it is the early bird that breakfasts on the worm, and it hoists the name of Clarkson Nott Potter for President. This from an organ of Tilden affinities, indicates that the Tilden fold of Pennsylvania is ready to seek for pastures new.

Very Cold Comfort.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sam Tilden has this consolation: he knows the name of the vile wretch that sawed his boat in two.

Trial of a Woman for Murder.

Charlotte Observer.

In the Superior Court of Robeson county, in session this week at Lumberton, Judge Seymour presiding, the case of Miss Linkhaw, for the murder of Ed. Hartman, will come up for trial. It was presented at the spring term of the court, but owing to some defect in the bill of indictment, had to be remanded to the grand jury at the following term. The killing is of such recent occurrence as not to require that the circumstances should be repeated here, further than to say that the young man was shot in the parlor of a hotel in Lumberton by the accused, who charged him with having seduced her under promise of marriage. Shortly after the tragedy was enacted Miss Linkhaw had a child, which is still living. As the case has already been in the courts nearly a year, it is not likely that there will be a continuance Thomas L. Linehan has been sentenced in New York to three years' imprisonment for causing the death of Elias Lindehelm, and two more for grand larceny.

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, Col. John K. McChesny, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe, Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

VEGETINE

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live! and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, 'Vegetine.'

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,

H. R. STEVENS, Boston:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with.

TWO YOUNG BOYS ON A LARK.

They Find a Roll of Money and Are Arrested for Grand Larceny.

N. Y. Star.

Two ragged boys, each fourteen years of age, named William Kelly, of No. 391, Greenwich street, and Richard O'Donnell, of No. 123, West Broadway, were arraigned in the Tombs Court yesterday morning, to answer a charge of grand larceny. From the testimony offered it appeared that John Sketchly, a groceryman of No. 69 Vandam street, dropped a roll of bills, amounting to $140, on the sidewalk, about a week ago. Kelly found the money, and divided it with his companion, O'Donnell. The lads, thus made suddenly rich, proceeded to a clothing store, and purchased new suits of clothes to begin with. Kelly gave $21 to his sister to keep for him, and O'Donnell handed a similar sum to his mother. The next step for the boys was to proceed to a livery stable and hire saddle horses at the rate of $1.50 per hour. With these they rode up and down Fifth avenue. The horses didn't please their fastidious taste for speed, and accordingly they hired two ponies at Central Park. Next they visited the theaters and made liberal purchases of ice cream and candies, all of which speedily reduced them from affluence to poverty, for when they were arrested by the detectives they were penniless. The money left at home was secured by the officers. The Justice discharged the boys. They had to doff their new garments, however, and were then sent home in charge of their parents.

American Cotton Still King.

New York Herald.

Mr. D. G. Watts, the President of the cotton exchange, who arrived home by the Bothnia on Wednesday, after an absence of eight months in Europe, was met in Hanover square yesterday by a Herald reporter. There is no denying that the prospects of the trade are vastly improved, the outlook all over Europe being better than it has been in a long time, and Mr. Watts was found as buoyant as the market. He expressed the opinion that there is not going to be any damaging competition with the American product, and remarked that the production of the staple, which had been constantly increasing, would continue to increase with the demand. "The production of cotton in India," said Mr. Watts, "has been decreasing every year. Next year it is thought there may be an increase of about two hundred thousand bales, but this increase is only an incident of a better season. The tendency is to drive out Great Britain as a competitor in producing cotton, as we produce a much better article at a comparatively cheaper price. It has been demonstrated that no other country can raise cotton to compete with ours. The present prices are good and we have nothing to fear for the future.'

Ah, lips of woman!—rosy, ripe—
The amber mouth-piece of my pipe
To me is twice as charming,
When one arrives at fifty odd

But then one finds a tinge of gout
A trifle more alarming.

Almost Young Again.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over seventy years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady, in Providence, R. I.

VEST POCKET CURE
25 DYSPEPSIA 25
CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney. LL. D., Col. Va.

It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Na. Conf.

About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.

I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.

It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.

This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Meteoric shower.

——Cotton is selling well.

——No marriage licences.

——Revenue receipts, $5,010.84.

——Summer now warms the lap of winter.

——Roller skating at Dodd's hall tomorrow night.

——Johnson, Sutton & Co., Baltimore, have taken out a drummers license.

——Balloon ascensions will be one of the attractions at the colored peoples fair.

——Rev. Dr. Pritchard, President of Wake Forest College, is at the National hotel.

——The street hands were yesterday engaged fixing up the gully on Martin street. Good thing.

——The funeral of Willie, son of Judge Strong, took place from Christ Church yesterday afternoon.

——It is about decided that our amateurs will not produce "Trial by Jury," but will try some other popular play.

——Should this weather continue much longer our colored people will have a splendid season for their first Fair.

——Attention is called to the communication published in to-days issue "To the Survivors of the Branch-Lane Brigade."

——Prof. Lincke has received another target gun, and parties attending his gymnasium hereafter will have a better opportunity to practice shooting.

——Posters announcing that John A. Stevens will perform the romantic drama "unknown" in this city, on the 20th instant, were being posted yesterday.

——The funeral of Mrs. P. R. Uzzle will take place from the residence of her husband this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend.

——Tony Thomas, colored, was arrested and taken before W. C. Brewer, J. P., for selling liquor at Forestville, and in default of bail was committed to await his trial before the Superior Court.

——A young gentleman of this city yesterday lost a "profile" of a young lady. It was in a velvet case and the finder will be rewarded if he will leave the same at this office.

——Osborn Williams now lunketh at the penitentiary. Deputy Sheriff Wormly of Pitt, brought him up, and says he has had a hankering after things that didn't belong to him.

——The funeral of the late Mrs. P. R. Uzzle will take place at her residence on Lane street, North side of the Deaf and Dumb Institution this morning at 10 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

——Cotton again advanced on yesterday, the market opened at 11 cents and advanced to 11 3-8 cents, but declined to 11 1-8 to 11 1-4 at which it closed firm. This advance is a great help to our farmers who are selling freely.

——D. L. White, of Elevation, Johnston county, was before U. S. Commissioner Purnell yesterday, charged with retailing whisky without license. The evidence did not sustain the charge, and the defendant was dismissed.

——There has been a number of professional troupes here this season playing "Pinafore," and yet it is safe to say that not one of them surpassed the Raleigh amateurs' rendition of the same. Get up something. Our people are getting theatre hungry.

——Master Bob Engle has gone to Nashville to enter the University of Tennessee. Bob has lots of friends here who wish him every success. Master Louis Kingsley accompanied him. Success attend you, boys.

——Prof. Pauli will open a singing school. The first meeting of his class will be held Friday afternoon at Christ Church Chapel where all who desire to join are requested to be present. He gives eight lessons per month—the charge is $1.50.

——Mr. Macon will keep his oyster saloon open to-night until three or four o'clock, so that those who have waited all night for the meteoric shower and have (and naturally so) gotten hungry can get a good "bait" of oysters before they retire.

——Mr. George Harwood will begin walking around the Yarboro house square at 6 a. m. this morning. He says he will make fifty miles in eight hours. The square has been measured, and to make fifty miles he will have to go around two hundred and ten times. Don't put too much confidence in this statement, Mr. R. of the Y. is our authority and maybe he's joking.

——General Cox is winning golden laurels by his efforts to aid the Orphan Asylum. General Cox has a big heart, and it is to be hoped that his efforts in this direction will meet with great success for these poor little unfortunates The fact of the business is the State should be supporting this institution to-day in the same manner and for the same reason it provides for the insane and deaf and dumb asylums.

——How things will get mixed up. Owing to a wrong impression a number of people lost their sleep last night looking out for the meteoric shower. No stars didn't fall—reason because it was the wrong night. It is to-night that they are expected. Go to Lincke's or your girl's house and watch and pra—ah, look sharp, and maybe you'll see them and maybe you won't. We don't know which, if we did we would tell you.

——To night the meteoric shower is supposed to come off. Go to see your girl and sit up with her and expect to see the shower. We trust that those who may await the astronomical wonder will not be disappointed. Some of the older ones says that the last similar occurrence which took place in 1833, was a sight well worth a few hours of wakefulness. So mote the approaching shower of stars be. It is generally expected that the occurrance will be between two and three o'clock.

——Prof. Lincke will keep his gymnasium open all night to-night. Those who contemplate sitting up to witness the shower of stars cannot spend their time better than by passing off the time in the gymnasium. It is expected that Mr. Lincke—or at least to judge from his uniform politeness heretofore—would not hesitate to have the roof of his hall taken off so that his patrons may have a full view of the meteoric shower. You can practice gymnastics while the meteors fall and if one should happen to strike you right you will do well. By all means go.

——A very large runaway took place yesterday morning. A team was coming down Wilmington street at headlong speed, when at the inter-section of Martin and Wilmington they collided with a wagon and a mule. One of the horses straddled the mule and things were terribly mixed up for awhile. Strange to say nothing serious happened; neither of the horses, mule or vehicles were in the least damaged. If it had been a fine span of horses, or a fine mule or wagon everything would have been smashed of course.

——When the excursion train left here for Wilmington a lady excursionists was hurried up by a friend, who remarked to her, "Mrs. Morehead, you had better hurry, or you'll be left." A bystander wittily suggested that she should make Morehead way.

——O, this town of ours! Cows, geese, hogs, &c., are nowhere—you are "played out," and not another word will be said against you. Last night about 11:20 a drove of horses about fifty strong marched down Fayetteville street in a run, commanded by two or three men who yelled at the top of their voices, "Ho! ho!! ho!!!"

"O! wot a willainous town we is!"

——The reporter was summoned down stairs from his office last night by the cries of a woman in front of the NEWS building. It seems that a negro—we have forgotten his name or we would publish it—had his wife by the hair dragging her home. This was one of the most brutal things we have witnessed for some time. No one seemed to pay any attention to the matter, and he turned the corner of Martin down Wilmington street, still dragging her, and she still yelling. There's lots of strange things that occur in this world of ours, and it appears a little strange to us that a "cop" didn't hear a little of this racket.

——John A. Stephens, in his romantic play of the "Unknown," will perform at Tucker Hall on Thursday night, the 20th instant. Here is what the Boston Herald says of his play and his company: "A very large audience greeted last night the initial performance in this city of John A. Stevens' romantic drama, entitled 'Unknown.' It is a remarkably fine melo-drama in five acts, written by Mr. Stevens, who enacts the title role, and is supported by a company, most of the members of which are strangers here. The action is quick, and the climaxes are reached by as direct and speedy a route as could be wished for. The materials of which the drama are constructed are new and vigorous, and are dexterously handled. The author succeeds in gaining and holding the spectator's attention thro' five really fine acts, while the tableaux are very effective indeed, and last night called out thunders of applause. Mr. Stevens, who has the leading part, is an actor of marked power, and manages his scenes very effectively. The character of the Unknown is not an easy one to handle by any means, and there are few actors who could surpass Mr. Stevens in his difficult creation."

Endless Punishment.

New York Mail.

Mr. Beecher preached on endless punishment yesterday. "There are," he said, "but two objects of punishment above or below—the preservation of the estate of society and the reformation of the criminal. The infliction of punishment for any other object endlessly and infinitely is the mark and token of demonic cruelty. The infliction of pain for the sake of pain is demonic and not divine. If I thought that a God stood at the door where men go out of life to strike them down to an eternal hell, my soul would cry out, 'Let there be no God.'"

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,

Officers and representatives can procure return tickets, on application, over the railroads, etc., at the rates herein mentioned, viz:

Six cents per mile for the round trip over the following:

Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad; Seaboard and Roanoke; Raleigh and Gaston; Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line; Wilmington and Weldon; Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta; Richmond and Danville (North Carolina Division); North Western North Carolina; Piedmont; and Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta.

Six and one-fourth cents over the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

By authority of law, I Thomas J. Jarvis, Governor of North Carolina, do set apart, Thursday, November 27th, 1879, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the manifold mercies and blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the year now passing away.

And in order for its proper observance I request the people on that day to close up their places of business and abandoning all secular pursuits to attend their respective places of Divine Worship, to return thanks to the Great Ruler of individuals and nations for the peace and tranquility which we have enjoyed; for the exemption from pestilence and disease which He has given us; for the kind and friendly relations that has existed among all classes of our citizens; for the general and growing prosperity that has pervaded the whole State and for all His varied blessings bestowed upon us; and to invoke a continuance of His watchful care and protection over us during the coming year.

And while it will be becoming on that day to remember the widow and the orphan, and the poor and needy every where among us; and to minister to their wants, I especially commend to the prayers and gifts of the people the Orphans in the Asylum at Oxford, who are now dependent for a support solely upon the charity of the people, the State appropriation for that purpose being entirely exhausted.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this, the 11th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine, and in the one hundred and fourth year of our American Independence.

L. S.

By the Governor,
THOMAS J. JARVIS.
